

Company Statement: Cox Argues ISP Liability Case Before Supreme Court, Warns of Broad Impact

ATLANTA – December 1, 2025 – Today, Cox Communications presented its oral arguments to the U.S. Supreme Court in its copyright case against Sony.

“We appreciate the opportunity to present our case to the Supreme Court and are grateful for the Solicitor General’s participation in today’s arguments. As we have said throughout, internet service providers should not be held liable for the infringement of few customers when the internet provider did not aid, foster, encourage or profit from the alleged conduct. Today’s argument showed how the lower court ruling, if untouched, could jeopardize internet access for all Americans.”
