Cox Provides Free Calls to the Caribbean for Cox Digital Telephone Customers

Atlanta, GA – September 8, 2017 – Today Cox Communications announced unlimited free calling to friends and family in storm impacted areas in the Caribbean for its Cox Digital Telephone customers. Any calls from Cox Digital Telephone customers to landline and wireless telephone numbers in the Caribbean will be free Sept. 8 through Sept. 24, 2017. The free calling period is automatic for all Cox Digital Telephone customers with a Cox Long Distance service plan.

Customers do not need to take any action to receive this discount. It will automatically be applied to their account for long distance calling to the British Virgin Islands, Dominican Republic, Haiti, Puerto Rico, Turks and Caicos, U.S. Virgin Islands and the Bahamas.

Cox Contour customers who may be away from home due to the Hurricane Irma can also stay connected to storm coverage or other programming via the Contour App.

About Cox Communications

Cox Communications is a broadband communications and entertainment company, providing advanced digital video, Internet, telephone and home security and automation services over its own nationwide IP network. The third-largest U.S. cable company, Cox serves approximately 6 million residences and businesses. Cox Business is a facilities-based provider of voice, video and data solutions for commercial customers, and Cox Media is a full-service provider of national and local cable spot and digital media advertising. Cox is known for its pioneering efforts in broadband, voice and commercial services, industry-leading customer care and its outstanding workplaces. For eight years, Cox has been recognized as the top operator for women by Women in Cable Telecommunications; Cox has ranked among DiversityInc's Top 50 Companies for Diversity 12 times. More information about Cox Communications, a wholly owned subsidiary of Cox Enterprises, is available at www.cox.com and www.cox.com and