Cox Business Security Solutions helps foster a smart business environment and delivers business-class detection and surveillance

ATLANTA - Feb. 5, 2018 - Cox Business announces today that Cox Business Security Solutions (CBSS) is now available in all Cox Communication regions. With CBSS, business owners can effortlessly monitor and protect their businesses anywhere, anytime.

Any security system can spot intruders, but CBSS spots opportunities. CBSS allows business owners to do more than just observe. In addition to protection, CBSS creates a smart business environment that allows remote monitoring and provides insights that drive optimization.

"We're thrilled to expand Cox Business Security Solutions nationwide," said Steve Rowley, executive vice president, Cox Business. "Simply put, business owners must monitor their environments and create a 'smart business'. With Cox Business Security Solutions, our video surveillance and detection systems help drive confidence in asset protection and provide peace of mind."

Cox Business Security Solutions is backed by a 24/7 professionally-monitored UL Listed, 5-Diamond facility. Using a broadband connection and wireless backup, Cox Business continually monitors the system to verify it is working to keep businesses secure. Plus, it's all backed by the reliable network and award-winning customer service at Cox Business.

"We are configured to 24 cameras with Cox Business. On my smartphone, I can pull up any of those cameras and zoom in to any situation that I just received an email about. I pull it up on my phone, I scan back 16 minutes, and I watch what happened. These cameras are doing so much, and the security gives me peace of mind." - Jeremy Holcomb, VP/GM, Legendary Marine, Destin, FL
